To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing this letter of recommendation on behalf of Erica Thomas.

Erica completed her student-teaching practicum at the Roland Hayes School of Music, a magnate school for the John D. O'Bryant School for Science and Mathematics in Boston, MA. She taught music theory and choral music to middle and high-school students five days a week in September and October, 2013. A gifted and talented young lady, Erica's performance in the classroom was outstanding! She was professional at all times and earned the respect of the students.

She was very conscientious and quite meticulous in writing her lesson plans and always consulted with me before presenting the lesson in class. Any suggestions or recommendations I made after observing her in class were always well-received. Erica incorporated those suggestions in future lessons. Her rapid growth and progress in just two months were very impressive!

A classical and R& B vocalist, Erica dazzled the students singing songs they were familiar with and immediately created her own "fan club" in class. Her warm and loving interaction with students was an indication of the success she'll encounter in the teaching profession.

Erica Thomas is a unique individual. Her talent, professionalism, and integrity as an inspiring music educator will serve to be a "Blessing" in the classroom! I highly recommend Erica to be considered for a teaching position in your school district - she was a "Blessing" to me and my students!

Please feel free to contact me at jboonie1@yahoo.com or (339) 224-0561 if you have any questions or need further assistance. It was a pleasure working with Erica!

Sincerely,

June E. Ambush
